The Lodge at Pico Bonito Offers “Lovebirds in the Rainforest” Paradise for Birders and Lovebirds Alike

Houston, TX, February 22, 2012 -- Nestled on 400 acres of Honduran rainforest, The Lodge at Pico Bonito is the perfect destination for couples seeking a magically, romantic jungle escape. An ecolodge on a property of this magnitude is virtually unparalleled in Central America, offering lovebirds a remote setting that highlights the beauty of the expansive rainforest while still affording the best of luxury amenities for which Small Luxury Hotels of the World is known.

Whether thrill-seekers, bird watchers or nature enthusiasts, couples of all ages and experience levels can enjoy an array of hiking trails, whitewater rafting trips, bird watching tours and other excursions amongst the region’s eight thriving ecosystems. An easy trip to Pico Bonito’s observation tower allows guests to experience the depths of the rainforest with views of the valley below and mountains beyond.

“Lovebirds in the Rainforest” -- A Couple’s Retreat

The Lodge at Pico Bonito is offering a special on its “Lovebirds in the Rainforest” package to couples who book their escape before May 1, 2012. The four-day, three-night package includes:

- Romantic Candlelit Dinner -- Couples will enjoy the restaurant’s gourmet cuisine during a secluded meal overlooking the dazzling Rio Carinto.
- Guided-Trek to the Unbelievable Fall -- A journey through the cloud forest, culminating at a breathtaking waterfall, which descends almost 100 feet into a dazzling swimming hole.
- Adventure Excursion – Couples can choose either thrilling whitewater rafting down the Rio Cangrejal or boating through the lagoons of the nearby manatee refuge.
- Luxurious Cabin—Set off of the property’s winding paths, the cabins are built of stone and native pine, appointed with soft, indigenous furnishings, and feature private verandas with hammocks.

Incentives to booking prior to May 1, 2012, include:

- Relaxing Couples Massage -- A sensory experience set to the melodies of the jungle’s chirping birds.
- Couples How-To Cooking Class -- A lesson in preparing Meso-American cuisine.
